

It took me a very long time to get off the many junk mail and telemarketing lists I did NOT want to be on. Since I pay for my phone service, I think I should have the right to say how it can be used. If the telemarketers want to call me tell them to pay my monthly phone service charges. Until then, I neither want nor need their calls. I want the DO NOT CALL LIST left as is.